OWNING THE TRUTH

Children learn early in life the rights of property. "That's mine!" or "that's yours" are words that every nursery will live by. Many lessons can be learned from knowing that certain things belong to us and that we must care for them if we would keep them for proper use.

"The secret things belong unto the Lord our God; but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law." (Deuteronomy 29:29)

God has revealed truth unto us by His Spirit: "But God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." (I Corinthians 2:10) The truth belongs to Christians!

The question that we need to face is whether or not we possess that which we own. Many of us have more stuff than we possess. We have bought them, but they have a habit of disappearing. It is as though we did not own them.

When the Old Testament people of God entered the Promised Land, they were ordered to go in and possess it. The promise was given that they should possess every place where the soles of their feet should stand. North, south, east, and west--all they had to do was walk in faith, and God Almighty became bound to fulfill His promise to keep them while they were walking.

In like manner, the Word of God has been given to us. It is a promised land; we are to enter in and possess it. Some Christians camp in the four Gospels, some camp out in sweet grazing areas like the Psalms. But too many never get any further in the possession of Christian truth. Some stay put in "God is love." Some forever live in the confines of "Jesus said, neither do I condemn thee..." We must, in these days of Biblical illiteracy among too many Christians, realize that the entire Word of God belongs to us. Each truth within its pages is waiting to speak to the heart.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (2 Timothy 2:15)

YOUTH

As we are set to turn the page to “Summer 2017,” I’d like to first acknowledge and thank all of the volunteers who helped make “Spring 2017” a great success. Our Wednesday night Youth services rely heavily on the dedicated leadership of numerous adult volunteers who lead small group Bible studies and form relationships on a more intimate level than I, as the Youth Pastor, can do from the pulpit. Those small group leaders this Spring are Chad Carrington, Tommy Carmical, Justin Clifton, Terry Lambert, Jim Reynolds, Amanda Reed, Stacy Glymp, Anna Wagnon, Brenda Walden, Dana Hayes, & Sheri Gourley. These Leaders have been a major asset as we have spent the semester leading our students incrementally through the 10 Commandments and how Jesus related them to the New Testament believer.

We are also blessed with a full house of students each week during our Wednesday After School program, which requires an armada of church vans & busses to transport and faithful volunteers to supervise until dinner. Some of these arrive before school lets out to drive vans, while others chaperone activities in various parts of the building once students arrive. Those volunteers are Angie Cotner, Jim Reynolds, Louis Stinson, Terry Lambert, Tommy Carmical, Justin Clifton, Rick Porter, Dennis Harris, Adam Johnson, and Britten Hays. I also want to make sure to thank Tammy Lambert, Diana Pieri, and all of the kitchen staff who prepare afternoon snacks and meals for the students.

We are so blessed as a church to have such faithful volunteers week in and week out to minister in this mission field that God has literally brought to our door. In case you weren't keeping count, that was 19 individuals I just listed as serving to meet specific ministry needs and I know there are others who work behind the scenes, like Mr. Kenneth Davis fixing the kitchen refrigerator, taking care of issues many are unaware of to see to it that we have everything we need to be as effective as possible in our various areas of ministry. As you can see, God has truly blessed our church with a mission that is bigger than us. We recorded 60 students (6th–12th grade) the last Wednesday of April, which is the most students I've seen for a routine Wednesday night service in my 9 ½ years at PHBC. I can only attribute that to these many adult volunteers being sensitive to the Lord's leading, asking Him to reveal to them where He is at work in and around them and then willingly stepping out in faith to join Him in it.

Again, we are very blessed with believers serving in so many areas, even beyond student ministry, but I feel confident that God is not content to stop here. We cannot buy a bus without being short on space again within months and I cannot add additional small group leaders without soon being in need of still more small group leaders. 1 John 5:14-15 says, "Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him." George Muller has said, "Prayer is not overcoming God's reluctance, but laying hold of His willingness." God has proven time and again that the prayer of an individual or a body of believers to be used to bring the gospel to the hearts of those who know it not is absolutely a prayer that He longs to answer and bless. "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" Romans 10:14-15

I cannot thank our volunteers enough and I would ask, as we enter the Summer break, each individual to prayerfully consider where God may be leading you to join Him in the ongoing ministry He has established through PHBC. We will be looking to September for ramping up this program again and would love to consider with you where best you could serve throughout the ministry life of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

God's want and need for this church to share the Gospel with our community's children has had me in awe. This year, for the first time, we were not allowed to put information about any programs that were going on at the church, but our program went from an average of 32 children to over 56 children on Wednesday afternoons. Usually when ball season starts we go down to about 32 children or lower, but this year has been totally different. The only time we have a big downfall is when storms are coming through, but if they pass and the parents think everything is safe, they usually come for the 6:30-7:30 time. I truly believe that Pleasant Hill Baptist Church has been put on this hill to be the light in this community because He knows that all our teachings come straight from His Word.

W.A.S.H. will be having its final day on May 10th. We will end this year with the Pinewood Derby Race for the boys and girls. We will be inviting parents to join us for dinner. Our preschool class will be participating this year also. They will recite the books of the New Testament.

We had a great turnout for our Children's Easter Brunch. Lori Cammarata and Shelly Gray did a great job organizing the children's brunch this year. We had egg races, crafts, and the resurrection egg story.

Thanks to Cindy Porter for giving up her Saturday morning to come and share the resurrection story with these children. I also want to thank Tammy Lambert for cooking all the great food we had that morning.

On April 12, we did AN EASTER STORY, with our Wednesday After School children. This is the first time we have every tried something with this many children and if you did not get to see the performance you truly missed a blessing. Sarah McPherson and Faith Cody did a fantastic job in leading these children. Adam Johnson, thank you for helping these young women and playing Jesus.

On May 17th we will kick off our Wednesday night summer program. I need at least five pairs of volunteers (either couples or two women or two men) who would be willing to teach our church during the 6:30-7:30 time. All materials will be provided. Lessons are all ready to distribute to those who are willing to teach during the summer so our teachers who teach on Wednesday during the school year can be fed. The subject will be lessons on the Lord's Prayer and how to pray. We will not be feeding children during this time.

Our PHBC Children Singing in Easter Service

Our summer Sunday night schedule will begin on May 28th. We will not be having Discipleship Training so the children will start out in the sanctuary until the offertory is finished and then will go down for a small snack and a game. Everything will be provided.

It is time to start thinking Vacation Bible School! If you are interested in serving during VBS, just use the tear off in the order of service and Dennis will make sure it gets to the right people. We will be having a quick meeting after the second service sometime in May. Just watch for the date in the order of service.

It is also time to start thinking about Children's Camp (Camp Renu). If you have a child who has finished the 3rd grade, and think he/she might be interested in going to camp or you need more information, please feel free to come and talk with me. Our sponsors this year are Sarah McPherson, Kelly Watts, Shanon Pinson, James Pinson and Justin Clifton. Be watching for the promotion video on Sunday mornings.

This summer we will be doing some extra activities during the day. More information will follow.

I want to thank all the servants who have been involved in the Children's Ministry. You have been a blessing to this ministry by sharing the love of Jesus to all the children who have come through our doors this year. Please continue to pray for our Children's Ministries and all who serve in this area.

*In Christ,

OUR CHURCH NEEDS TO HEAR YOU SING!

I look across the congregation as we're leading worship Sunday morning ...

I look up, and across the room I see "Jim." He's smiling with abandon. He's belting out words like he means them. And here's the surprising thing: he's looking right at me. It's as if he's willing the truths of this song into my soul by the sheer force of his contagious joy.

Do you love the members of your church enough to minister to them through song?

God intends our corporate worship to nurture love among the body of Christ.

Why? Because if we're not careful, the individualistic tendencies in our hearts can lead to a "me and God" approach to worship through song. We close our eyes, meditate on the words, and sing along softly with the band — all the while missing out on one of the hallmarks of congregational singing: the ministry of the family of God to one another.

You Are in the Choir

The New Testament describes singing as a corporate activity. A hallmark of those who are filled with the Holy Spirit is that they address "one another" in song (Ephesians 5:19). Why? Because singing is an avenue for Christian love. Consider Colossians 3:16, Paul's famous teaching on singing, in its broader context:

Above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. (Colossians 3:14-16)

There are countless threats to the unity of the body (Colossians 3:6-9). Paul knows that brothers and sisters may have "complaints" against each other (Colossians 3:9). What does it look like to foster a community of forgiveness and love? One important part of the answer, according to verse 16, is the singing ministry of each member. In other words, Paul has just signed up every believer for the choir.

Remember, each week we gather as wounded people to have our spiritual sores treated by the Great Physician. In his mercy, he uses our songs to apply his sweet balm.

The Christian enduring persecution from his biological family needs to hear the dozens or hundreds in his spiritual family sing, "Jesus, I my cross have taken, all to leave and follow Thee." The believer struggling hard against shame needs to watch you exult, "My sin, not in part, but the whole, has been nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more!" The saint overburdened by work, striving, and performance needs to listen as you affirm, "We rest on Thee, our shield and our defender."

Of course, we don't only address one another as we sing. Ephesians 5:20 and the psalms of praise teach that God is the primary audience of our songs and melodies. But raising your voice to edify others is, in fact, precisely one of the ways we exalt God's worth. By singing, we beckon our brothers and sisters to delight in his beauty.

What Difference Does This Make?

If we see our singing as part of our personal ministry to others, it will shape how we approach music at church in practical ways. Here are four suggestions to help press the implications of Paul's command into the corners of our worship.

1. Pray for members of your church prior to and during the gathering.

As part of your preparation for Sunday, consider their struggles, fears, and trials. Ask God to remind them of his kindness through the songs. If a line in a hymn brings someone's situation to mind, pray that the words would minister to him or her in that particular moment.

2. Sing with conviction.

As I mentioned earlier, my friend "Jim buoyed my faith simply by showing that he believed the words he was singing. One way to demonstrate conviction is to sing loudly. There are few things more spiritually invigorating than being surrounded by believers exalting Jesus at full volume.

3. Use body language.

This will vary according to your personality and culture, but even in the most subdued settings we can convey a lot by our body language during corporate singing. Smile during hymns of joy. Convey contrition during songs of confession. Perhaps most importantly, don't always keep your eyes closed. Making occasional eye contact with others is a powerful way to show that you're singing with them in mind.

4. Lay aside your stylistic preferences.

Since one of the main purposes of corporate singing is to build others up, music gives us a wonderful opportunity to "count others more significant than yourselves" (Philippians 2:3). If the words are true, excellent, and beautiful, try to engage with every song, even if it's not your favorite genre. You might just find that the joy you see on others' faces helps you appreciate the song for its ability to edify people who have different tastes than you.

We sing because Christ first loved us. We love because he first loved us. May we do both as we gather with his beloved bride this week.

MEN IN MINISTRY

What a blessing to find the men always willing to work! We will have our breakfast times as planned on May 6th, and then again on June 3rd, Lord willing. Thanks so much for taking care of the mowing needs, and the beautification of the church grounds. Thanks so much for combining all ages to see how servants of the Lord work with joy in their hearts. Thanks for working as individuals when there is no recognition given for the various ways you serve. Thanks for praying every Sunday morning that the dam will finally break and we will see a harvest of souls!

Thanks for being the men of God that fulfill the line in the hymn, "rise up O men of God, and be done with lesser things." Thanks for choosing to serve the Lord!!

PHBC ON MISSION

Dental Clinic

May 20th is rapidly approaching! We are teaming up with our Arkansas Baptist State Convention servants and resources to minister to our community and beyond. This year we are expanding our publicity to encourage more to come and experience the free dental clinic. We will have all the wonderful services to go with this like outside activities for the young, food provisions for their lunches, as well as pantry foods to carry home. We will have our teams of counselors ready to share the love and life of Christ with all participants.

Thank you so much for serving on this day! The believing family called Pleasant Hill always excels when the call for servants is given. The believing family of Pleasant Hill is also filled with effectual, fervent prayer warriors, so pray for everything that will take place. May God be glorified as His kingdom comes, and His will is done on earth as it is in heaven.

Thanks for being a vital part of a Church on Mission!

Sardis Ballpark

Acts 1:8 states, "...you shall be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." I think sometimes it's easier for us to find the courage to go to the 'end of the earth' than it is to go to our Jerusalem. Maybe ministering in our local community seems less exciting or adventurous, or maybe we are just a bit uncomfortable ministering to those we rub shoulders with every day. But, as Acts 1 indicates, God has given us a mission to serve right here where He has planted us, in the Sardis community.

Over the years members of PHBC have volunteered to run concessions for the ballpark when no one else was available and we have seen a growing relationship between our church and many in our community because of it. The Sardis Ballpark is an ever-growing point of contact, as many of the children and teens we minister to week in and week out are heavily involved in ballpark life. The Sardis Ballpark board members (all of whom have had children/youth involved with PHBC this school year) have asked if our church would volunteer to do concessions some nights during the Baseball State Tournament. Hosting the State Tournament is a privilege that only comes once every 20-30 years and we have gladly accepted the opportunity. We are also praying that God will bless our willingness to serve the Sardis community with greater opportunities to share our faith with them and their families.

Don't be afraid that you wouldn't know what to say or how to share your faith. This particular mission opportunity will be very simple and won't really involve any one-on-one interaction. We will simply be cooking burgers/fries, selling items through the concession stand, and picking up trash. This opportunity is less about evangelism in the moment and more about establishing a greater relationship of trust and fellowship with our community from which to present the gospel in the future. If you've ever helped out with your child's sports concession duty, you are perfectly qualified for this mission. If you have never set foot inside a concession stand or fast food kitchen, no worries, there's about a five minute learning curve.

The dates are roughly June 22nd – July 3rd. We won't necessarily serve every one of those nights, but, depending on how many volunteers we have, we will serve as many as possible. It would be an amazing testimony to our community, however, if our church stepped up in a big way and covered every single night of need. Please check your calendar and pray about your involvement in this special mission opportunity.

Children's Mission Project — Healing Waters

February is mission's month for children. This year we took a vote on how we could serve God in our community. The committee and children voted to do their service work at Healing Waters which is located in Shannon Hills.

Healing Waters is a mission that is faith based and serves the community with Bible studies and a meal on Sunday. They also have a food pantry and a store where you can earn Healing Waters dollars by serving and then using those dollars to shop and get necessities – everything from hygiene products to batteries and even toys.

We began with a tour and then several of the children served tea to people who were eating or handed out pizzas, bread and buns. The majority of the children worked in the store marking out barcodes and stocking shelves with hygiene products. I was amazed at how all our children responded. They wanted to know if we could do this every Sunday! We will be returning during the summer to help out again.

Since our preschool children were too young to participate in the trip to Healing Waters, the next Sunday, during their Sunday School time, we made cards to mail to many of the elderly and shut-ins in our church. They did a good job making the cards and we talked about why we love and show respect to our elders.

I have such fun teaching these children. They are such a blessing.

Sharon Harris

WELCOMING COMMITTEE

The new Welcoming Committee has been at work since the first of the year. The current Welcoming Committee consists of Royce Agee and Kathy Hensley (co-chairs), Johnny Cotner, Tanya Grant, Louis and Margaret Stinson, and Nelda West. You hopefully have noticed some of the work that has been accomplished by the committee (along with the help of some other very talented church members!)

New handicap and visitor signs have been placed in the parking lot. (Thank you to the men for setting the posts for the signs!)

All Sunday School classes have been designated with class and teacher names. (Thank you to Bro. Dennis Harris for all the information!)

Directional signs, including maps with a “YOU ARE HERE” notation, have been placed throughout the various church buildings. (Thank you to Steve Overstreet for designing the wonderfully helpful maps!)

A new order of service has been implemented with a “tear off” side panel, welcoming guests and members to fill out and turn in new and updated contact information, decisions made, prayer requests and a handy sign-up area for upcoming events. (Thank you to Raye Parker for her work on setting up the new template.)

A Welcome Center booth (beautifully refinished by our own Terry Lambert. Thank you, Terry!) has been placed in the foyer to provide first-time guests a place to come after the service and receive a welcome packet of information about the church and a small gift.

AND... Work is continuing... with plans to train greeters and ushers (among other things), we will continue to strive to better welcome our guests and serve our members. Our church has been described as a “friendly” church by visitors and guest speakers alike. These are more ways we can purposefully be guest “focused” and be reminded of how important everyone is that God sends our way.

How can YOU be a part of all this? Be a GREETER! Be on the front lines, and at the front doors, as we WELCOME whoever visits Pleasant Hill Baptist Church! We want them to proclaim, “I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.” Psalm 122:1. Volunteer by indicating on the backside of the tear-off panel in the order of service, or by contacting someone on the Welcoming Committee or Bro. Dennis in the church office.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve in this way!

The Welcoming Committee

SEWING WITH LOVE

Ladies be inspired to get involved! Our Sewing with Love ministry revolves around our amazing volunteers! Without our volunteers, we would not be able to offer our love to many families. If you have any sewing skills and feel a passion for this ministry, please consider becoming a volunteer. We meet once a month on the third Thursday at 10:00 a.m. in the Old Fellowship Hall. We would love to have you.

As of our last meeting in April, we had seven ladies present. Our meeting that morning kicked off with a great devotion by Tonya Knight.

We were asked to make 25 Alzheimer Activity Mats for Evergreen Nursing Home and 100 for Heartland Nursing Home. So far, we've made 66 Alzheimer Activity Mats as well as one apron for a patient at Evergreen and two adult bibs. We also made 77 dolls for the Arkansas Children's Hospital. These will be given out to the children as they are getting treatment. As of this time, we have not delivered any items yet. Please pray God will guide us to know when the time is right to deliver the items and how to minister to the patients.

We have had four church members to receive an Alzheimer Activity Mat for a loved one. We delivered one mat to Mrs. Minnie Moyer, Linda Friday's mom. Linda told us her mom takes her mat with her everywhere she goes. We pray over each item as they go out that God will use them in a mighty way.

The Women's Ministry asked us to make 50 tea bags for the Ladies Tea and Brunch. We were very happy to be able to do this. We are continuing to work on the Alzheimer Activity Mats and we have started making Walker Totes for our nursing home patients and others.

If you would like to donate to our ministry, we need two yards of cotton or flannel material.

Sewing with Love Ministry has been very busy but we have loved every minute of it and God is blessing us. Come out and get a blessing with us!! We would love to have you. We have so much fun.

TRAVELERS' CHAPEL

When we think of the two words "Travelers' Chapel", we think of Bob and Judy Farrow who joined our church family and brought with them this wonderful ministry. Now we pray for everyone who has the privilege to serve out there at J.J.'s Truck Stop Sunday morning and evening. We are grateful also to Rick Richardson who goes out every other Sunday night to minister the Word of God to the hearers.

My personal experience enabled me to gain several eternal perspectives. First, the dedicated effort to appeal to every driver to experience Jesus is every Sunday. You can see God at work revealing where He is at work in drawing the interest of the drivers. You can also realize the element of spiritual warfare. Some will not even look your way when you wave at them as they exit the lot. But one of the most powerful issues is in realizing that even if only ONE driver responds and comes to join in the experience of celebrating Jesus, it is well worth it. We know this because all it takes is one who becomes blessed by the Lord who will take Him all over the Country!! The scope is eternal! The impact is immeasurable.

I am personally grateful for the privilege of getting to preach and visit. I pray that you will have the opportunity to experience what God is doing at Travelers' Chapel!

Brother Rick

I ask for your prayers Travelers' core volunteers. Satan is working overtime to attack each one so we must be doing something right. Our Prayer concerns include:

Fawn Perkins, co-director – has to have shots every Wednesday for her body to make blood
Vince Perkins, Fawn's caretaker – numerous health issues

Doug and Carolyn Tosh – Doug just had surgery to help with the pain in his back and Carolyn can hardly get around, both have been down for weeks

Frank Murphy – had open heart surgery in December and was going blind (the Lord has performed a miracle with Frank's eyesight and he is doing well from his heart surgery

Bob Farrow – high blood pressure issues to the point of hospitalization

Judy Farrow – much pain and kidney and bladder issues along with fibromyalgia

Pam Fowler – back surgery in the near future and she lost her Mother and Uncle within days of each other a couple of weeks ago

Rick Richardson a PHBC member who takes care of services every other Sunday night – has been attacked ever since he joined our team last July, from broken ribs to his wife Cris having to have knee replacement surgery, falling, and having to have another surgery on the same knee

On a positive note, we had two drivers this past Sunday, one a regular and one a first-time visitor who says he'll be back as often as he can. We love our truckers and appreciate all they do to keep our country and our households running with supplies. Thank you for praying for our truckers also.

You are always invited to attend any Sunday services 8:30 a.m. or 7:00 p.m.

Judy Farrow

The Puppet Team would like to thank Bro. Louis Stinson for driving the church van to Arkansas Health center for the Appreciation Banquet. After this week, we will take the summer off from practice, but will still go out to the Center every other month. If you would like to join the Puppet Team, please contact Tonya Knight.

MINISTRIES OF THE HEART

Please continue to remember our members who are unable to attend church due to health issues. They love getting cards and phone calls. So, always be sure to look in the Order of Service for our Superstar of the Month.
